

Natural hoof and horse care based on the wild horse model with Louise Bach Holler (AANHCP, Denmark) and Dominic James Hill (AANHCP, Scotland)

Data/Place: June 18th in LVA (Lithuanian Veterinary Academy, Tilzes str. 18, Kaunas, no. 4' at camp map) starting at 8:30 AM.

Working language: English (with translation into Lithuanian).

Scheduled agenda

8:30 Registration (LVA, Tilzes str. 18, Kaunas);
9:00 Opening of the seminar. Presentation of lecturers;
9:10 Introduction to AANHCP (D.J. Hill and L. Bach-Holler);
10:00 Hoofcare principles today (wild horse model) (L. Bach-Holler);
11:30 Coffee break;
11:50 AANHCP approach to illnesses such as laminitis, etc. (L. Bach-Holler);
12:30 A concept for keeping horses "Paddock Paradise" and principles of horse feeding (DJ Hill);
14:00 Stresstrickers and how it affects the horses health (D.J. Hill);
14:40 Coffee break;
15:00 Demonstration of hoof trimming (LVA, Large Animal Clinic);
16:30 Discussion;
17:30 End of the seminar.

About the lecturers:

Louise Bach-Holler - the first certified AANHCP (<http://www.aanhcp.net/>) hoofcare specialist in Denmark. Her riding career began in childhood, later she worked and studied in Denmark and in various U.S. riding schools. In 1997 she founded her own riding base Hesteforståelse, where courses are held on the hoofcare, feeding, balanced riding etc. <http://www.hesteforstaelse.dk/English/hesteforstaelse.dk/index.html>

Dominic James Hill - AANHCP Coordinator International Practitioner Affairs. He has 35 years experience working with horses. He is a certified riding coach, breeder, preparing horses for dressage and cross country events. The Certified Cytek Ferrier and AANHCP instructor is actively involved in training in the United States, Europe and Africa. Another of his expertise is "Paddock Paradise" methodology. <http://www.cloverroseequine.co.uk/index.html>

Registration: until the 10th of June by email: lvga@lva.lt.

Participation fee:

Up to June 10th: 140 LTL.
After June 10th: 160 LTL

Transfer your payment to:

LVGA
Bank name: AB DnB NORD bank, Kaunas branch;
Bank code 40100,
IBAN: LT244010042500003454;
SWIFT: AGBL LT 2X
Add remark: Hoofcare seminar 18-6-2010

Handouts and certificates of participation will be prepared only for those who sign up and pay the participation fee by bank transfer up to the 10th of June

After making your payments send the following details by email:

Full name:
Address:
Phone:
email:
Specify when you've paid:

Send to LVGA email: lvga@lva.lt